

fares of said town; to order the taking down and removal of any house or building deemed dangerous and unsafe, and to direct the taking down of the same without delay; to prevent and regulate the storage of gunpowder, oil or other combustible matter in such quantities and in such places as they may deem proper; to prevent obstructions on the streets, lanes, alleys and highways of said city; to regulate the width of tires of all vehicles used upon the streets, lanes or alleys of said city; to license carts, wagons, carriages and other vehicles used for transporting goods for persons for hire, burden or pleasure, and to provide and regulate the numbering of same; to regulate the speed of horses, wheeled vehicles, automobiles, cars and locomotives in the city limits; to regulate the erection and maintenance of proper safety appliances by railroads at street crossings; to regulate and license all pawnbrokers, junk dealers, fire and slaughter sales, auction sales, peddlers of nostrums, remedies, medicines, notions and other goods, patents, secret or pretended inventions; to regulate and license all nine and ten pin alleys, bowling alleys, skating rinks, theatres, moving picture shows, boxing and sparring matches and wrestling contests, and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to provide for the restraining of theatricals or other public amusements within the said city; to regulate or prohibit the running or landing of excursions to or in said town; to provide for, require and regulate the construction and maintenance of exists and fire escapes from places of amusement and all public buildings; to prevent gambling and games of chance; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures in, under or above the same, and to require the owner or occupant of premises to keep the sidewalks in front of same and the gutters thereof free from snow and other obstructions, and prescribe hours for cleaning same; to regulate and prevent the throwing of sweepings, dust, ashes, offal, garbage, paper, handbills, dirty liquids or any other material into any street, alley or public places, or on any vacant lot in said city; to regulate and prevent the use of streets, sidewalks and public places for signs, signposts, awnings, awning posts, poles, horse troughs, steps, railings, entrances or any other obstructions, or posting handbills and advertisements and display of goods, wares and merchandise; and to provide for and enforce the removal of any such that are now so erected, planted and being; to grant franchise for and regulate the putting of sewers or drains on or under its streets or alleys and the charges for entering same, whether before or after the passage of this Act; provided that persons having paid for entering such sewer before the passage of this Act shall not be required to pay any additional sum or charge for tapping or entering the same; to open to have opened to build